Ontario-Montclair School District Superintendent and SELPA Executive Director to be Honored by ACSA Region 12.

The Ontario-Montclair School District is proud to announce that Superintendent Dr. James Q. Hammond and SELPA (Special Education Local Plan Area) Executive Director Alana Hughes-Hunter will be honored by the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA), Region 12 as Administrators of the Year.

Superintendent Dr. Hammond will be recognized as Superintendent of the Year and Ms. Hughes-Hunter will be honored as Special Education Administrator of the Year at the ACSA Region 12 Spring Celebration on April 15, 2019 at the DoubleTree Hotel in Ontario.

OMSD Board President Elvia M. Rivas stated, "The Board of Trustees sets very high expectations for Dr. Hammond and he does not disappoint. It is affirming and encouraging that colleagues and others recognize his skillset and passion for providing a better future for our students and families."

Board President Rivas added, "Beyond her skill, knowledge, and experience, Dr. Hughes-Hunter leads our SELPA, which is a complex department that requires the understanding of diversity, love and respect for all students. Dr. Hughes-Hunter truly is a servant leader".

Superintendent Dr. James Q. Hammond leads OMSD, which is the third largest elementary school district in the State of California. The District covers 26 square miles and covers most of the city of Ontario, Montclair, portions of Upland, and unincorporated areas of San Bernardino County.

Under the leadership of Superintendent Dr. James Q. Hammond, the Ontario-Montclair School District proudly boasts eleven Gold Ribbon Schools, two California Distinguished Schools, four International Baccalaureate Schools (three elementary and one middle), a GATE Magnet School, a Science Magnet, Dual Language Academies, as well as many other State and National recognized programs.
